BRADY CAMPAIGN ENDORSES DANNY TARKANIAN FOR NEVADA SECRETARY OF STATE

Washington, DC –Danny Tarkanian today received the endorsement of the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence, the nation’s leading gun violence prevention organization. Tarkanian is running for Nevada Secretary of State.

Mr. Tarkanian has been a strong supporter of the Brady Law, and supports passage of a Federal Assault Weapons Ban.

“We’re very pleased that Nevada has such a strong supporter of common-sense gun laws,” said Paul Helmke, President of the Brady Campaign. “Danny Tarkanian knows how important it is to keep military-style semiautomatic assault weapons off the streets, and he’s committed to fighting the good fight to keep our families and our communities safe.”

As the nation's largest, non-partisan, grassroots organization leading the fight to prevent gun violence, the Brady Campaign, working with its dedicated network of Million Mom March Chapters, is devoted to creating an America free from gun violence, where all Americans are safe at home, at school, at work, and in our communities.

SARAH ROBOCALL
Danny Tarkanian (R),
Nevada Secretary Of State

Hi. This is Sarah Brady from the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence. We want assault weapons off Nevada's streets. Ross Miller, who's running for Secretary of State, opposes that, even though one was used to kill a Las Vegas policeman. I'm asking you to vote for Danny Tarkanian for Secretary of State. He supports common sense gun laws like a ban on military style assault weapons. I'm at 202-898-0792. Thanks for your time.

Alison,

We had to do an edit. Sarah mispronounced Nevada so we cut that out. We're awfully touchy about that. Campaigns have been eviscerated because of it.

This is what we sent out.
